THE South-Carolina Gazette.

From MONDAY October 15th, to MONDAY October 22d, 1750.

LISBON, August 3.

HIS Portugueſe Majeſty departed this life on the 31ſt paſt, at 7 in the evening, and had the night before received the apoſtolical bleſſing by the hands of the Pope's nuncio, and the extreme unction by the patriarch of Liſbon. When his body was opened, a few hours after his death, a large quantity of water was found both in his head and breaſt, by which it appeared his diſtemper was a dropſy in his ſtomach. His majeſty is now lying in ſtate in one of the apartments of the palace, and is to be interred this evening at St. Vincente, a convent of royal foundation in this city, the uſual burying-place of the houſe of Braganza. The Abbé de Mendoça, formerly envoy to the States General, and M. Carvalho, who was employed in the ſame character at the Britiſh court, have juſt now kiſſed the new King's hand as ſecretaries of ſtate, the former for the marine, and the latter for foreign affairs. Orders are given out for a deep and general mourning for a twelve month, and half mourning for a year longer.

London, July 4. On Thurſday ſome Diſpatches arrived at the Cockpit from Hanover, which were immediately forwarded to the Lords of the Regency.

By Letters from Naples we find, that his Sicilian Majeſty, copying after the Meaſures purſued in Spain, has reſolved to ſet up divers new Manufactories in his Dominions, in order to give Employment to the great Numbers of Vagrants that infeſt the Country, and now live by robbing and pilfering. In the mean Time the Court has ordered the Detachments to be reinforced, that are deſtined for the Security of the public Roads; and all Vagrants and Highwaymen that ſhall be for the future apprehended, are to be tranſported to Sicily, to work in the Mines there.

Sir Danvers Oſborn, Bart. one of the Knights of the Shire for the County of Bedford, and Brother-in-Law to the Earl of Halifax, is gone to Nova-Scotia to take a View of that Colony.

London, Auguſt 7. Letters from Fez in Barbary, dated the 10th of July, by way of Leghorn, give an Account, that the Plague made terrible Havock in that Kingdom and Mequenez, having taken off above 30.000 Perſons. One third of the Inhabitants of Tangier have died of it.

There is Advice from Conſtantinople, that the late Grand Vizir, who was degraded and ſent into Exile about five or ſix Months ago, is recalled, to fill a very conſiderable Poſt.

The following French Men of War are arrived at Liſbon from Breſt.

La Couronné, Commodore Macnamarra, 74 Guns and 730 Men.
Le Sceptre, Capt. Dubouly, 74 Guns, 650 Men.
Le Hercule, Capt. Maribout, 64 Guns, 450 Men.
La Junon, Capt. Francois, 64 Guns, and 450 Men.
St. Laurent, Capt. Beaufremont, 38 Guns, 250 Men.
Le Marechal Saxe, Capt. Mirabeau, 20 Guns, and 160 Men.

They write from Halifax in Nova-Scotia, that the Fiſhery was extremely good, one Company only having 1400 or 1500 Quintals of good dry Fiſh ready to ſhip for a foreign Market, and others have alſo been very ſucceſsful.

Yeſterday Mr. William Hollier, was choſen Secretary to the New African Company, by a very great Majority.

London, Auguſt 9. Yeſterday Morning about Two o'Clock died, at Godalmin in Surry, in the 51ſt Year of his Age, the moſt noble Prince Charles Lenox, Duke of Richmond, and Duke of Lenox in North-Britain, and Duke of Aubigny in France, Earl of Marche and Darnley in North Britain, Baron of Settrington and Turbotton, Maſter of the Horſe to his Majeſty, a Lieutenant General, Colonel of the Royal Regiment of Horſe Guards Blue, Lord Warden of the Foreſt of Windſor, High Steward of the City of Chicheſter, Doctor of Phyſick, Fellow of the Royal College of Phyſicians, one of the Elder Brethren of the Trinity Houſe, and Fellow of the Royal Society.

It is ſaid that his Grace the Duke of Marlborough will be made Maſter of the Horſe, in the Room of the Duke of Richmond, deceaſed; and the Duke of Leeds Lord Steward of the Houſhold.

The Duke of Dorſet will be Lord Lieutenant of Ireland.

Letters from Paris adviſe, that orders have been ſent to M. de la Jonquiere, commander of the French troops in Canada, to return home to give an account of his conduct.

We hear that general Cornwallis, governor of Nova-Scotia, is impowered to reinforce Laſcelles's regiment to the number of thoſe on the Britiſh eſtabliſhment, if his excellency ſee occaſion.

The prince Anamabo, who has been over here for ſome time to be educated, is preparing to ſail with capt. Baird for Africa.—His couſin, who has likewiſe been here for education, is ill of the ſmall pox.

The French men of war that ſailed from Breſt for Liſbon, have on board between 3 and 4000 marines, and gave out that they were going to ſome port in America. But yeſterday it was reported on the royal exchange, that they were ſailed from Liſbon for Cadiz, in order to take on board the money that was brought on the French account in the Spaniſh galleons from the Havanna.——So that the public cannot yet judge of the true deſtination of this ſquadron.

We hear that the fine bridge croſs the Thames, from Walton in Surry to Shepperton in Middleſex, is now made paſſable for all ſorts of carriages, and will be compleatly finiſhed in two or three days. The middle arch is 130 feet, and ſuppoſed the largeſt arch in the known world.

Yeſterday arrived a mail from Liſbon, by which we learn, that the King of Portugal is ſucceeded by Don Joſeph, prince of Brazil, his ſon; and it's ſaid, that before his majeſty's death, he requeſted that his ambaſſador at the court of Vienna might, after his deceaſe, be appointed prime miniſter.

His majeſty was born October 22, 1689, and married Mary Anne of Auſtria, who was born Sept. 7, 1683. Their iſſue were, 1. Don Joſeph, Prince of Brazil, born June 6, 1714, who in January 1728-9. eſpouſed Mary Anne Victoria, Infanta of Spain, born March 31, 1718.——2. Donna Maria, born Dec. 4, 1711, married to Ferninand the preſent King of Spain, born Jan. 29, 1728 9.——3. Don Pedro, born July 5, 1717.

The Prince of BRAZIL's Iſſue.

1. Donna Maria Frances, Princeſs of Biera, born Dec. 17, 1734.—2. Donna Maria Anne, born Oct. 7, 1736.—3. Donna Maria, born Sept. 21, 1739.—4. Donna Maria Benedictina, born July 24, 1746.

Extract of a Letter from Barbados, dated June 24.

I have your favour by Capt. Holland, with the act of parliament, and hope the African trade will be well ſettled. It is time to attend ſeriouſly to it, as the French are very numerous on the coaſt.—I heard lately from Euſtatia, that greater quantities of ſugar have gone from thence to North America this year than was ever known; this muſt greatly prejudice the Britiſh Sugar Colonies.

I told you in my laſt, that M. Caylus was dead, and M. Point Sable, the Governor, was very ill; he is ſince dead; but no ſteps were taken by him to evacuate the Iſlands; and we hear from Tobago lately, that there are ſome French families and a great many Negroes there, clearing the land and making a ſettlement: This is certainly a matter of the utmoſt conſequence to the Britiſh nation, and the very being of their ſugar colonies depends upon it.

Extract of a Letter from Paris, dated June 18.

We have lately ſeen here a Liſt of eighty-ſix Ships which the Engliſh are ſaid to have in Commiſſion, that are rigged, manned and victualled. Such a pompous Liſt ſtruck us at firſt, and could not fail to give us a majeſtick Idea of the Maritime Power of that Nation; but on examining a little more cloſely into this Number, and the Quality of the Ships, the whole did not appear ſo formidable. There are in fact but fifteen Ships of the Line, the reſt being only Frigates from twenty to thirty Guns, (ſome perhaps of forty) ſloops, Yachts, and other Veſſels of that kind. Beſides, Great-Britain has indiſpenſable Need of this whole Number, even in the midſt of Peace: She is obliged to keep ſhips of War in the Eaſt and Weſt-Indies; ſhe muſt have others in the Mediterranean, at Gibraltar, at Port-Mahon, and on the Coaſts of Scotland and England: In fine, ſhe muſt have Men of War to convoy her Merchantmen, and protect her Commerce, which is extended to all Parts. On comparing the Maritime Force of France, ſimply as it is at preſent, with that of this powerful Nation, we can ſcarcely think it inferior upon the whole; for, not to mention the many light Frigates which come and go, if one may ſay ſo, incognito, the Number of our ſhips of War in the Indies is not inconſiderable. There are more in our Ports than is commonly thought, and we are daily adding to their Number. At Toulon alone we have built, in a very little Time, to the Number of thirteen. All theſe ſhips will be put in Commiſſion, and kept in conſtant Motion. No formal Squadron will be compoſed; but detachments ſtationed at proper places, while other flying Bodies come and go to the Indies: Some will be employed in the Mediterranean, to cauſe the French Flag to be more and more reſpected; others ſerve as Caravans to Liſbon, to Cadiz, and other Ports of Spain, Italy, and other Countries. By theſe Means we ſhall exerciſe our Marine, and the Court have always at its Diſpoſal a Number of Seamen, and ſhips fit for immediate ſervice on any Emergency.

CHARLES-TOWN, October 22.

From the Northward we have Advice, that on the 25th of Auguſt laſt, a Spaniſh Man of War of 60 Guns, from the Havanna for Cadiz, was caſt away about 14 Leagues from the Capes of Delaware: That 3 other Spaniſh ſhips, (which came out with 3 more under Convoy of the Man of War, and were ſeparated from her in the Latitude of Bermuda, by a Storm that laſted 7 Days) put into Virginia, very much ſhatter'd; on board one of which Thomas Wright, Eſq; of this Province, is ſaid to be: That a 4th had been aſhore about 6 Leagues to the Southward of Cape Hatteras, but was got off again; and a 5th loſt 12 Leagues more to the South: And that the 6th was ſuppoſed to have foundered at Sea, many dead Bodies having been driven aſhore on the Coaſts of North-Carolina and Virginia. A more particular account will be in our next.

The Brigt. Grampus, of Winyaw in this Province, William Bowling Maſter, being on an outward-bound Voyage, overſat on the 7th Inſtant: The Captain, Paſſengers and Crew (12 in Number) took to their Boat, and were 7 Days in her without Proviſions or Water, in which Time 3 of them died; the reſt were taken up juſt as they had reach'd the Bahama's, on the 15th Inſt. and brought in here by Capt. Dutby, who arrived laſt Week from Providence.

We have received ſome imperfect Account of ſome extraordinary Tranſactions; ſome great Diſappointment, &c. which, on my getting fuller Information of, I may hereafter entertain my Readers with.
